

Reading Braille Haggadah with his fingers, Peter asks Rabbi Walter Duckat (center) the traditional Four Questions. Listening are Leo Rokeach (left), whose company issued book; David Stayer, Phoebe Katz.

Prayers for the Blind

UNITED PRESS FOTOS

New Hebrew prayer book in Braille enables sightless to follow rituals

Have you told your intimate friends yet?

After discovering Tampax for yourself, your next duty is to spread the good news.

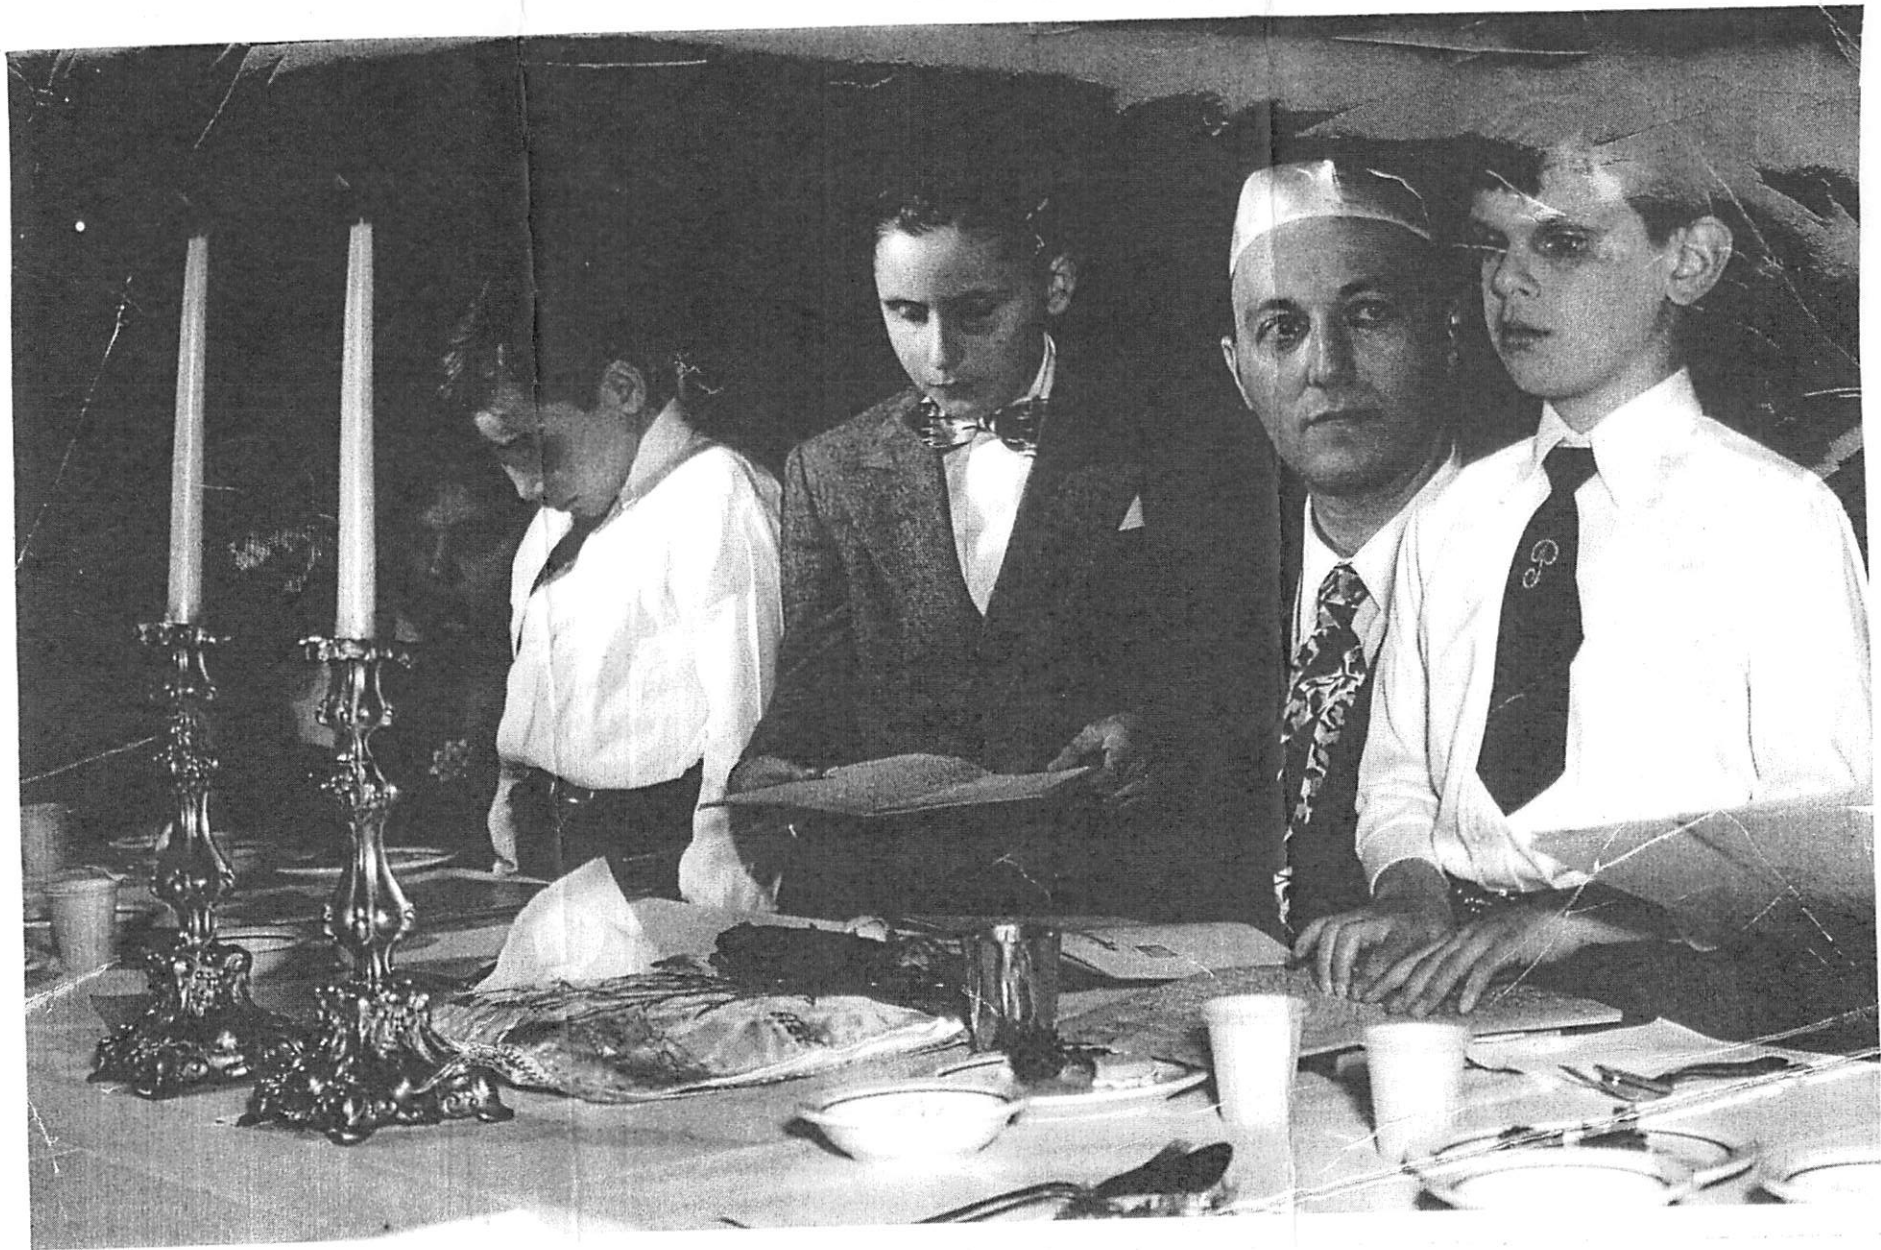

News of an improvement in sanitary protection is too important to be kept secret. Women will want to hear about it and will actually thank you for such information. . . . Just think of it!

Here at last is freedom from belts, pins and bulky outside pads. Freedom from odor from chafing, from bulges, ridges, edges that show through dresses, skirts. . . . Also you are relieved those fears and doubts that come you when you are not sure what others can detect. . . . A doctor-vented Tampax for internal use means of a dainty patented applicator containing pure absorbent cotton. Easily changed. Wear it in your bath. (You cannot feel it anywhere.) Easily disposable. . . . At drug, notion counters in 3 absorbent Regular, Super, Junior. . . . Tampax Incorporated, Palmer, Mass.

$5 FOR FAVORITE RECIPES

Mail yours to Favorite Recipe Editor, THE NEWS, 220 E. 42nd St., New York 17, N. Y.

RABBI WALTER DOCKAT
SEDER for BLIND CHILDREN